Saturday, March 31. 1705.

From the Amſt. Cour. & Leid. & Amſt. Gaz. dated March 31, &c.

Vienna, March 18.

THe 16th in the Evening an Expreſs arriv'd from General Heiſter, with Advice, That having fiez'd a Magazine the Malecontents of Hungary had on the Waag, he had ſupply'd the Garriſons of Trentſchin and Leopoldſtad with Proviſions for a long Time; That he had withdrawn the Imperial Troops out of Tirnau; That having left good Garriſons in Modern, Poſing, and St. George, he paſs'd the Danube the 15th of this Month with the reſt of the Army near the Iſland of Schut; That his Deſign was to engage the Body of Malecontents Commanded by Count Caroli, but that upon his advancing towards him, the ſaid Count retir'd towards Raab with great Precipitation; And 'twas ſuppos'd would retire further ſtill, to repaſs the Danube at Pax near Fuldiwar. The Regiment of Foot of Salm, is arriv'd in our Suburbs, from Bavaria; and after they have lain ſtill 2 or 3 Days to refreſh themſelves, they will purſue their March to reinforce the Army under General Heiſter; who has already been join'd by the Regiment of Tollet. We can learn nothing certain yet touching the Accommodation with the Malecontents of Hungary; ſome pretend 'tis in a hopeful Way, others ſay the Malecontents have rejected the new Propoſals ſent lately to them by the Deputies we formerly mention'd.

Vienna, March 21. The 19th being the Feſtival of St. Joſeph, whoſe Name the King of the Romans bears, his Majeſty receiv'd on that occaſion the Complements of the Court, and of the Foreign Miniſters. The ſame Day an Expreſs arriv'd from Piedmont with Letters dated the 6th Inſtant, with an Account that Verue was able to hold out 2 Months longer; That the Siege of that Place had already coſt the French 20000 Men, and that their Army is reduced to 10000. The Secretary of Baron Sirmay, one of the Deputies ſent to make new Propoſals to the Malecontents, came hither from him laſt Night with ſome Letters for the Court; but the Contents of them are not yet made publick. General Heiſter march'd the 17th, with 3000 Horſe towards Comorra, and the 18th he caus'd his Infantry to fall down the Danube thither in Boats, deſigning to fall upon the Body of Malecontents under Count Caroli near Raab; but they retreated towards Pax to repaſs the Danube there. We have alſo Advice, That the Malecontents have abandon'd the important Poſt of Papa, of which they lately poſſeſs'd themſelves. General Heiſter has ſent Stores of Proviſion to Oedembourg, for ſubſiſting a long time the Garriſon of 2000 Men that are in it. The Regiment of Salm is march'd from hence to join General Heiſter. The Cardinal de Lamberg, Prince and Biſhop of Paſſau, and Plenipotentiary to the Diet at Ratisbon, is made one of his Imperial Majeſty's Privy-Councellors. The Emperor has accepted the Mediation of England and Holland, for promoting an Accommodation between him and the Hungarian Malecontents.

Paris, March 30. The Count de Toulouſe is to ſet out from Court for Toulon the 8th of April. The Marquis de Bedmar has taken Leave of the King, and is preparing to proceed on his Journey to take Poſſeſſion of the Viceroyalty of Sicily. 'Tis reported the Chevalier de Coetlogon is ſail'd from Breſt with 17 Men of War, for Toulon. There lately arriv'd here a natural Son of the Elector of Bavaria; he is call'd the Chevalier de Baviere; he is lodg'd with the Counteſs d'Arco his Mother, he is Ten Years Old. 'Tis ſaid the Marſhal de Chamilli is nominated to command in Poitou, and that he will have under him the Marquis de Congis, and the Count de Chamilli his Nephew: The Marſhal de Chateau-Renaud is to command in Britanny, and Meſſieurs de Palaſtron, de Thiange, and de Clodore, are to ſerve under him. And Monſieur de Moncauf is to ſerve in Normandy under the Marquis de Matignon.

The General Officers appointed to ſerve this Campaign in the Armies in Flanders, on the Moſelle, and on the Rhine; are theſe following. In Flanders, under the Marſhal de Villeroy, 20 Lieutenants General, viz. Meſſieurs de Gace, de Guiſcard, d' Artagnan, the Duke de Roquelaure, Gaſſion, the Count de la Motte, the Marquis d' Alegre, the Duke de Villeroy, Caraman, Dantin, Liancourt, Soufternon, Saillan, the Duke de Guiche, Biron, the Prince de Rohan, the Chevalier Courcelles, Vibraye, the Count de Horn, the Prince de Birkenfeld: and 13 Majors General, viz. Meſſieurs de Bohan, Montroux, Puyguion, the Baron Palavicini, Courten, Villars, Chandieu, d' Achy, Bouzoles, du Tot, the Prince de Talmon, the Count de Sezane, la Connelaye, Montgeorge. On the Moſelle, under the Marſhal de Villars. 13 Lieutenants General, viz. Meſſieurs the Count du Bourg, the Count de Hautefort, Druys, the Count de Roucy, the Marquis de Surville, Legal, Chamarante, la Chaſtre, the Chevalier du Roſel, Lee, Manderſchide, Vivans, du Chaſtelet, and 12 Majors General viz. Meſſieurs Levy, Fontboiſard, Conflans, Silly, Coigny, the Count de l' Iſle, the Count d' Evreux, Streif, Spar, the Marquis de Broglio, the Count de Chamillard, my Lord Clare. On the Rhine, under the Marſhal de Marſin, 11 Lieutenants General. viz. Meſſieurs de Lanion, Magnac, the Marquis de Roſel, the Duke de Charoſt, Sailly, Immecourt, Cheladet, Mornay, Dorrington, Ste. Hermine, Vaillac. and 9 Majors General, viz. Meſſieurs de Bligny, Youl, Guaſquet, Perry, Vieuxpont, Monſoreau, the Marquis de Canillac, Firmarcon, Choiſeul-Beaupre.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated April 3.

Liege, March 30. Our Garriſon hold themſelves in a readineſs to march into the Field. Beſides the 7 Spaniſh Squadrons that lately march'd from Brabant towards the Country of Luxembourg, 7 or 8 others Regiments are ordered to hold themſelves in a readineſs to take the ſame Route. The Enemy are working to make a new Line, and repair their old.

They

They write from Bruſſels, That the Elector of Bavaria is gone from thence to take a View of the fortify'd Places of Flanders, and that 'tis believ'd he will not make the enſuing Campaign.

Shields, March 27. Yeſterday the Wind being South Weſt, ſaild out of this Harbour 40 Sail of laden Colliers, under the Convoy of the Kinſale; but the Wind coming up more Southerly, they all Anchor'd at the Bar; and the Wind blowing very hard laſt Night, one of theſe Colliers ſunk at the Bar.
